

Reseller Consumer Dispute Request

For accurate processing please type information in the fields below, then print and mail

The Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 allows you to dispute information on your credit report through one of the three credit reporting agencies or the reseller, such as United One Resources. If your report was pulled by one of our customers in the past 220 days, you can dispute certain information through United One Resources.

United One Resources can only assist you in disputing information related to credit accounts such as your car loan, mortgage, credit cards, and student loans. We can also assist you in disputing public record information such as judgements, tax liens and legal suits. United One Resources cannot assist you with disputes about inquires, consumer statements or consumer identification information. You must contact the following credit reporting agencies directly to handle this type of dispute:
